Common police engaged for VIP security

†1000. SHRI MANOHAR JOSHI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether common police force personnel are deputed for protection of VIP's thereby having it's impact on common policing;

(b) if so, the impact it has on the common police duties, whether our police force is adequate to check rising crimes in society;

(c) in view of large-scale of high tech crime in the society, whether our police personnel are earnestly trained to face this challenge; and

(d) the steps being taken by Government to prevent rising crimes in the society?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) No Sir. There is a separate unit for Police force for providing security cover to VVIP/VIP. Moreover, a sizable quantum of CPMFs are also deployed for armed guard duties with a number of Protected Persons.

(b) Police force is strengthened as and when need arises to check rising crimes in Society.

(c) The efforts are on to train the police personnel to combat high tech crime and number to training programmes have been designed in this regard.

(d) Community Policing, innovative way of intelligence gathering, regular surveillance on activities of criminals special patrolling are some of the steps being taken by the State Governments to prevent rising crimes in the Society.
